

GATEWAYS TO THE FIRST WORLD WAR END OF PHASE 1

Friday 11 November 2016

Programme

- 11.00 The Last Post will be played outside the Registry and a minute's silence will be held
- From 11.30 Music: 1914-18, an exhibition by Dr Emma Hanna, will be open in the Colyer-Fergusson Gallery
- 12.00 Networking lunch in the Colyer-Fergusson Foyer
- 13.10 To His Love, a recital in the Colyer-Fergusson Concert Hall arranged by Dr Kate Kennedy, exploring the life of First World War poet and composer Ivor Gurney through his own words and music
- 14.00 Coffee break
- 14.30 Dick Robinson and Prof. Alison Fell: 'Edith Elizabeth Appleton O.B.E. R.R.C. A Nurse at the Front'
- 15.30 Dr Brad Beaven and Dr Melanie Bassett: 'Jutland's National Impact: Civic and Community Responses in Britain'
- 16.15 Prof. Mark Connelly: Conclusion and future plans
- 16:30 Event finishes

Arts & Humanities
Research Council